

ENDORSED ORDER

United States Bankruptcy Judge
United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York

Re: Notice of Presentment of Proposed Supplemental Order Granting 151st Omnibus Objection to Claims

I have received and reviewed the Supplemental Order dated June 27, 2011. I do not feel that my concerns have been adequately considered. I wish to reiterate that I object that my claim may be reclassified as an equity interest claim.

I feel that General Motors fraudulently misrepresented the viability of their company to me. General Motors must have known that the viability of the company was deteriorating months, possibly years, before filing for bankruptcy. I feel that General Motors knew that its stock would eventually be worthless, and rather than notify me or take action to protect me from loss, they chose to take no action. It is my belief that due to fraud and misrepresentation that my claim should not be reclassified as equity interest. The result would be unjust and inequitable.

The assets were held in the General Motors 401(k) plan that I participated in as an employee of General Motors for 31 years. The funds included both bonds and General Motors common stock.

My claim number is 60788 and the amount of my claim is $129,197.04.

Sincerely,

Mark F. Hasson III

Endorsed Order

Though the Court understands the frustration and disappointment that Mr. Hasson feels as a stockholder in the former General Motors Corporation, and his view that General Motors misrepresented its viability, the Court has ruled on this issue, and the Court is not permitted to revisit this issue on a case by case basis. The Court is bound to uphold the law, and the Court may not single out any individual stockholder for special consideration.

The claim must be reclassified consistent with the Court's previous rulings.

Abstract: The purpose of this study was to determine the effect of a 12-week training program on the physical fitness and health of sedentary, middle-aged men. The subjects were 20 men, aged 40-50, who were sedentary and had no history of cardiovascular disease. They were divided into two groups: a control group and an exercise group. The exercise group participated in a 12-week training program consisting of three sessions per week, each lasting 30 minutes. The control group did not participate in any exercise program. The physical fitness of the subjects was measured at the beginning and end of the 12-week period. The health of the subjects was measured using a questionnaire. The results of the study showed that the exercise group had significantly higher physical fitness and better health than the control group at the end of the 12-week period.

1. The first of these is the fact that the United States has a large and growing population of people who are not citizens of the United States. This is a result of the large number of people who have been admitted to the United States as permanent residents, but who have not yet become citizens. This is a problem because these people are not entitled to the same rights as citizens, and they are not subject to the same responsibilities.
